Main international projects:

Among the international research projects coordinated by F. Pastore in his capacity of Director of FIERI:

- “Transnational Figurations of Displacement (TRAFIG) – Connectivity and Mobility as Solutions to Protracted Refugee Situations” (2018 - 2022). Main source of funding: European Commission’s Horizon 2020 Programme for Research and Innovation. General coordination: Internationales Konversionszentrum Bonn GmbH (BICC), Bonn, Germany. TRAFIG’s overall objective is to investigate the causes, consequences and solutions to the situations of protracted displacement in Asia (Pakistan and Jordan), Africa (Tanzania, Etiopia and Congo) ed Europea (Greece and Italy) . FIERI’s main role in the project is to coordinate the Work Package on Europe.

- 2017-2019: “Evaluation of the Common European Asylum System under Pressure and Recommendations for Further Development” (acronym: CEASEVAL). Main source of funding: European Commission, Horizon 2020 (Call: H2020-SC6-ENG-GLOBALLY-2016-2017). Under the general coordination of the Technische Universität Chemnitz (Germany), FIERI is coordinating the Work Package on “Multilevel governance of reception”, aimed at understanding the processes that shape the current configuration of national asylum reception systems and the main drivers of divergence/convergence between them.

- 2016-2019: MEDRESET (<http://www.medreset.eu/>). Main source of funding: European Commission, Horizon 2020. Medreset is an international interdisciplinary project focusing on the present and possible futures of EU policies towards southern and eastern Mediterranean countries. It aims at designing an inclusive, flexible, and responsive future role for the EU in the region based on the multiple perspectives of local and bottom-up actors. Under the general leadership of the Istituto Affari Internazionali (IAI), FIERI is leading the work package on “Migration and mobility” in cooperation with the Moroccan University of Meknes.

- 2016-2017: Labour-Int (<http://www.labour-int.eu/>). A project funded by the European Union’s Asylum Migration and Integration Fund (AMIF) and coordinated by the European Trade Unions Confederation (ETUC). It is aimed at promoting a multi-stakeholder approach involving social and economic partners for a better labour market inclusion of asylum seekers and refugees. F. Pastore’s main role in the project is to coordinate the Expert Group on Skills and Migration, key advisory body of the project.

- 2014-2015: WORK→INT. Assessing and enhancing integration in workplaces (<http://www.work-int.eu/>). Main source of funding: European Integration Fund of the EU. Led by FIERI in collaboration with the Centre on Migration, Policy and Society (COMPAS, University of Oxford), the Hamburgische WeltWirtschaftsinstitut (HWWI, Hamburg), the Trinity College (Dublin), the Complutense University (Madrid) and the Brussels Office of the International Organization for Migration (IOM). The project consisted in a comparative inquiry on the integration of internationally mobile workers in firms and workplaces, with a special focus on the health sector.

- 2013-14: “EU-MIA - European Migrant Integration Academy” (www.eu-mia.eu). Main source of funding: European Integration Fund. In partnership with the International Training Centre of the ILO (coordinator) and COMPAS (Oxford). Policy analysis, case study research, video documentaries, development of on-line and live training materials for municipal officials working in the field of integration and cohesion policies.

- 2011- 2014: “LAB-MIG-GOV. Which labour migration governance for a more dynamic and inclusive Europe?”, (www.labmiggov.eu). Funded by the Programme “Europe and global challenges” promoted by a pool of European foundations (Compagnia di San Paolo, Riksbankens Jubileumsfond, VolkswagenStiftung). Comparative research on the multi-level governance of labour migration in Europe, with a special focus on the transformative impact of the economic crisis.

2011-2013: “Promoting Integration for Migrant Domestic Workers in Europe”. Main source of funding. European Integration Fund. In partnership with the International Labour Organization (ILO, coordinator), Fundación José Ortega y Gasset-Gregorio Marañón (Spain), Institut National d'Études Démographiques – INED (France), Centrum voor Migratie en Interculturele Studies-CeMIS (Belgium), European Trade Union Confederation-ETUC (Belgium).

- 2011-12: “Concordia Discors: Integration and conflict in European neighbourhoods” (www.concordiadiscors.eu). Main source of funding: European Integration Fund. Led by FIERI in partnership with the European Policy Centre (EPC, Bruxelles), the European Forum of Migration Studies (EFMS, University of Bamberg), the Grup de Recerca Sobre Migracions (GRM, University of Barcelona), COMPAS of University of Oxford and the Social Research Institute (TARKI) of Budapest. An interdisciplinary study of integration dynamics and policies at neighbourhood level in five European cities.

- 2011-2012: “Attitudes to Migrants, Communication and Local Leadership” (AMICALL). Main source of funding: European Integration Fund. In partnership with COMPAS (coordinator), Central European University (CEU, Budapest), European Forum for Migration Studies (efms, Bamberg), Erasmus University of Rotterdam, Complutense University of Madrid and the Council of Europe. AMICALL project created a “transnational learning network” focusing on communication strategies of local and regional authorities in the field of immigration and integration.
